Dave Dudley - What We're Fighting For - YouTube

Q: We've been getting a lot of questions about an alleged Winston Churchill quotation and I'm trying to verify if it's genuine. The story is that when Churchill was asked to cut funding to the arts in order to support the war effort in World War II, he responded "Then what would we be fighting for?"

World War II, conflict that involved virtually every part of the world during 1939–45. The main combatants were the Axis powers (Germany, Italy, and Japan) and the Allies (France, Great Britain, the United States, the Soviet Union, and China). It was the bloodiest conflict, as well as the largest war, in history.

What are we fighting for? What do we mean when we talk about women's rights? What are we fighting for? Here are just some examples of the rights which activists throughout the centuries and today have been fighting for: Women's Suffrage. During the 19th and early 20 th centuries people began to agitate for the right of women to vote. In 1893 New Zealand became the first country to give women the right to vote on a national level.
